BREED THEATER.

Priest of the Wilderness," Powerful Indian Motion Picture.

'At the Breed theater today will be shown for the first time in this city the wonderful motion picture of Father Joques' mission to the Iroques, under the title of The Priest of the Wilderness.

This is a vividly realistic reproduction of the strenuous days in Quebec.

Wilderness.

This is a vividity realistic reproduction of the strenuous days in Quebec, when the Jesuit priests were attempting to establish missions among the Iroquois Indians, the most savage of all the Indian tribes, and the most bitter in their hatred of the white invaders, this very interesting, and thrilling picture being shown in eight scenes. This is a purely historical picture and is reproduced with astonishing accuracy. Another great treat is in store for the patrons of the Breed today, as Manager McNuity has secured the much coveted film d'art, entitled The Reckoning, said to be one of the greatest pieces of acting ever presented on the screen. Appearing in the leading part is Mr. Krause, one of the foremost actors on the French stage today. At the present time he is playing the part of Fiambeau as leading man for Madame Sarah Bernhardt in L'Asigion. In this silent drama he pluys the part of the injured husband, the central figure of the piece, and being a gifted artist, displays great intelligence in handling the part, enthralling the spectators and holding their interest to the very last.

Miss Alwin will sing the latest popular hit, Don't Forget to Drop a Line to Mother, besides her concert sons.

AT LINCOLN PARK.

Vaudeville at Rustic Theater.

The crowds at Lincoln park are increasing. Wednesday afternoon and evening the cars carried down several hundred people from Norwich, bound for a cool outing at this pretty little pleasure spot in the country, and it is moticed that not a few people from peints between Hallville and Westerly hav heard about the attractions at Lincoln park, and make it a practice to take in the bill at the Rustic theater as often as possible.

Inipeoln park, and make it a practice to take in the bill at the Rustic theater as often as pessible.

The Phillips Sisters continue to delight with their artistic lancing and aweet singing, while Miss Corbett's character changes are unique and pretty, as well as correctly costumed. Lewis and Harr in their darkey dialect and old plantation songs make new friends daily, and William Cahill can make anybody laugh uproariously by his Irish jokes and stories, which are followed by a couple of well rendered songs. Hawley and Alcott in Just Married a Week' are prime entertainers, and their act is a taking close to an altogether agreeable and allistatory programme. This week's bill is one that suits everybody.

Prof. Baker and his orchestral associates are on the job afternoon and evening, and the dancing payilion grows daily in popularity. The floor is particularly good, and the young folks, with now and then a couple that have left real, actual youth behind, enjoy it lingely. The 245 car from the square is in time for the afternoon and the 7.45 for the evening performance.

At Roderick Theater.

At Roderick Theater.

For the latter part of the week Manager Drury has secured The Little Angel of Roaring Springs, a thrilling wentern drama by the Kalens company, noted for their western pictures. It is replete with exciting climaxes and the plot of the story is very unusual and holds the interest of the people to the very end. For the comedy there is An Uninvited Guest, and The Advantages of Aviation. Among the others, A Woman's Intrigue is deserving of special mention and is a very strong picture. Mr. William Delaney will sing one of the latest illustrated songs. The theater continues to be cool in spite of the recent hot spell, and the new swinging fans touch every spot of the theater with their cooling breezes.

Accidents—Serious Need of Rain.

Mrs. Lydia Esther Gardner died at her home on Main street at 5.30 Wednesday morning after lying at the point of death for several days. Airs. Gardner has been an invalid for wenty-five years, being confined to her bed more or less for the past thirteen months.

She was born tydia Esther Richmond, daughter of Benjamin and Lois Richmond of Voluntown, and was one of a family of twelve children. Her family came to Jewett City when she was but a small girl, later going to Hope Valley, R. L. then known as Brand's fron Works, after a few years removing to Jewett City, where a little over fifty years ago she met and married John. Gardner, whom she survived about a year. The deceased was one of the oldest members of the Baptist church here, having united March 27, on her 51st birthday.

Mrs. Gardner was one who, aside from the demands made upon her by her church and friends, devoted her best attention to the rearing of her family, always before and after becoming an invalid her home interests were her best interests. There survive her four children, Mrs. Eliza Saunders, Miss Angle Gardner, Charles F. Gardner and Behjamin R. Gardner, four grandchi'dren, Ernest Saunders, Richmond P. Gardner, Evelyn Gardner, Elmma Gardner, a brother, William P. Richmond, of Wyoming, R. I., and a sister, Mrs. Henry Mitchell, of Stuart, Mont.

Mrs. Waters Injured. Mrs. Waters Injured.

Mrs. Sherman Waters of Lisbon met with a painful injury Tuesday afternoon at her home. She had meunted the express team which her husband drives preparatory to coming to Jewett City. Her dress skirt blew against the horse and he started. Her husband, who stood near called "Whoa!" and Mrs. Waters was thrown to the ground. The horse again started, but was quickly spopped, not, however, before Mrs. Waters had been badly cut and bruised.

Michael Connell, one of Lisbon's most prosperous farmers, brought to market Wednesday twenty dozen of sweet corn in full ear.

Ruptured Blood Vessel. Frank Waters, superintendent of the Jewett City electric light plant, was able to be at his office Wednesday, but on crutches. He slipped on a round stone and ruptured a blood vessel in the calf of his leg. The physician classes it among the painful though not serious injuries and says he must keep his foot off the ground for several days.

Mary Campbell has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Guest, of Providence.

Drought Becoming Serious. Drought Becoming Serious.

Wednesday was one of the recordbreakers for heat. The drought is assuming alarming proportions. Many crops in this section will be a failure and the loss to farmers in the outlying districts will be very great. Corn has begun to suffer badly. On account of these conditions many milk producing farmers are feeding the same grain as in winter because of the shortness of seasonable fodder.

Baptist Interests.

Rev. B. D. Remington has returned from Bridgeport, where he has been spending a week. He was called there to officiate at the funeral of E. M. Preskley, who for many years was dock foreman for the New England Navigation company and a friend of Mr. Remington.

At the Baptist church on Sunday morning, August 1st, the service will begin at 10.45 and the pastor will preach on The Equalization of the Work of the Church. There will be no evening service in the church, but a union missionary service will be held with the Congregational brethren at their place of worship. Mrs. Annie Straith Jameson will deliver an address on her work in Formosa, China. Mrs. Jumieson is a forceful and interesting speaker, and her story of her missionary life and work in that faroff land is full of interest.
